
NUMISMATISTS PRACTICING NUMISMATICS—T. James Clark (center) president of the Ameerican Numismatic Association, was the envy of coin collectors in convention here this week because he owns a collection of first coins minted in America, dating back to 1652. In this picture he is showing the coins to F. E. Hodge (left) and C. Shirley Leachman.

—can show you an easy way to a delicious dinner. Easy, compact, and cooler. Put all your dinner in the roaster and let it do the rest, while you rest too. It broils, boils, bakes, and roasts, the while keeping your kitchen or kitchenette a cooler spot to work in. If you make your purchase before August 28, you can save $2 on your grocery bill at any Sanitary or Piggly Wiggly store.
